

Call for Nominations: Seattle Audubon Annual Awards 2010

Please help us recognize individuals who are going the extra mile for birds and nature in the areas of education, conservation, and science.

The Education Award recognizes an individual in the K-12 arena in the greater Seattle community whose work inspires students to love, respect and protect nature.

The Conservation Award is given to an individual in the greater Seattle community who has made a unique and significant contribution to the protection of birds and wildlife habitat, using creative means for engaging and inspiring the public.

The Science Award honors an individual in the greater Seattle community who has made a significant contribution to our knowledge of the birds and wildlife habitat of our region, through publications or other means of disseminating scientific information.

The nomination letter should be one to two pages long. Supporting documents may be submitted. The letter should include a statement of the nominee's background and achievements. Please include contact information for the nominee as well as the nominator. The deadline for nominations is 4:00 pm Monday, April 26, 2010. Awards will be presented at the Seattle Audubon Appreciation and Awards Dinner on Thursday, June 17, 2010.
