

Seattle Audubon – Board Member Recruitment

Seattle Audubon is looking for a person with a commitment to and passion for environmental conservation and education to join our Board of Directors.

Board members plan, prioritize and evaluate programs to ensure alignment with the organizational mission. Board members also provide adequate resources to accomplish the organization's mission, and ensure effective management of resources through development, approval, and monitoring of the annual budget. All board members are involved in fund development and donate individually to support and reinforce the full board accountability. Board members enhance the organization's public standing, assure legal and ethical integrity, and maintain accountability.

We are looking for an individual who has the energy and enthusiasm to contribute to our Board of Directors. Our primary objective is to recruit a person with fresh ideas, strong leadership abilities, and a commitment to strengthening the programs and foundation of Seattle Audubon.

If you are interested in this opportunity, or can suggest a good candidate, please contact Jen Mullen at jenm@seattleaudubon.org or (206) 523-8243 ext. 12. To apply for this position, please email a brief resume and cover letter or email stating why you would like to join.